THE BOOK OF LACE: comprising a History of the Fabric from the Earliest Period, with upwards of 100 Illustrations and Coloured Designs, including some interesting examples from the Leeds Exhibition. By Mrs. BURY PALLISER. One Volume, 8vo., cloth extra, One Guinea.

"One of the most readable books of the season; permanently valuable, always interesting, often amusing, and not inferior in all the essentials of a gift-book."—Times.

"We take our leave of Mrs. Palliser with hearty thanks for her valuable book; it contains a mass of curious knowledge, which she has accumulated and arranged with infinite grace and judgment. Not only has she written an excellent history of the fabric itself, but she throws a curious incidental light upon the social life and manners of each period. The illustrations are beautiful and appropriate."—Athenæum.

LIFE AND LETTERS OF LEOPOLD I., KING OF THE BELGIANS. By THEODORE JUSTE. Translated by ROBERT BLACK, A.M. One Volume Edition, bound, Two vols. in One, cloth extra. Uniform with "The Early Days of the Prince Consort." 8vo., with 2 Portraits, 16s. [This day.]

"Of great value to the future historian, and will interest politicians even now."—Spectator.

"The subject is of interest, and the story is narrated without excess of enthusiasm or depreciation. The translation by Mr. Black is executed with correctness, yet not without a graceful ease. This end is not often attained in translations so nearly verbal as this; the book itself deserves to become popular in England."—Athenæum.

POPULAR NEW NOVELS.

TRUE TO HERSELF. By the Author of "Anne Judge, Spinster," &c. Three vols. [This day.]

LONGLEAT. By ELLERAY LAKE. 3 vols.

"As the story is told we feel the strangeness of its incidents gradually wear off, until they assume an air of reality which convinces us the characters are creatures of flesh and blood, and that their most trivial actions are leading up to consequences which cannot fail in the end to justify the author's design. This impression results both from the power of word-painting—we never read a story that more abundantly in life-like pictures—and from the sustained gravity of the style, notwithstanding the occasional humour which relieves it. In no single instance has Ellerray Lake sketched a scene or recorded a conversation for the sake of effect, apart from her final purpose."—The Graphic.

[In the Press.]

This Work has been awarded a Prize by the French Academy.

"The best proof of the immense results accomplished in the various departments of philology is to be found in M. Lenormant's admirable Handbook of Ancient History. Fifty years ago such a work could not have been published, and it is not too much to say, that the mass of knowledge conveyed through the means of inscriptions, both cuneiform and hieroglyphic, has revolutionised the views one was apt to form of the great nations which flourished before the appearance of Christianity."—Athenæum.
